Henscratchins' from Cindy Hendrickson ...

Betsy DeGroff received flowers at the beginning of Rotary...how nice...but no mention made. Hmmmm.

Jane Monaghan confessed to having her second grandchild, offered up the usual $50 fine and was the recipient of a wet seat. "Oh, that awful Ruth Gibson did that," whispered PP Marshall Deeney.

Off to Boonville and then on to Cape Cod went Don Felix. But poor Don couldn't make it out of the harbor due to weather conditions. He brought the gift of salt-water taffy for Pres. Fred, who so nicely shared.

Our guests today included William Parker, Peg Parker, Josh Wolcott, Sarah Shultz, and Eleanor's only friend, Peg.

Congratulations went out to Jessie Barth on the success of the Perry Principle Project.

Both PP John Matson & PP Howard Wood received an additional Paul Harris sapphire stone for their continued good deeds.

Today's birthday: Denis "1 N" Berwanger.

Past president and current Mayor, Howard Wood, paid $2 for his picture in The Daily News. Woody sure gets around.

Mike Hughes reminded us about Social Night at the Glen Iris, Wednesday, June 27, starting with social hour at 6 p.m. This dinner replaces the Thurs. June 28 meeting. Yes, today is P. Fred's last official meeting.

Larry LaCroix announced a letter regarding workday at the Boy Scout Camp in Pike on Sunday, July 8, at 1 p.m. Ellen LaCroix also mentioned the generous donations made by past president Sam Gullo as he produces the shirts for the camp, and from past president John McClurg, who loans the camp a truck to use during that week.

The Queen of the Wet Seat, Nancy Meissel, ha, ha, ha, received one herself, although a bit delayed. Well, that was just fine, and fined $1. Good news and bad news. The good news is that she went on a surprise hot air balloon ride. The bad news is that a tree fell during one of our recent storms, and landed on three of their vehicles.

Today's dessert was ice cream, compliments of Butch and Betsy DeGroff.

A Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar, Kelly Lewis, was the program of the day. Outgoing President Fred gave her a $500 check, and she presented her slide show of her 14-month trip to South Africa where Kelly completed her Masters Degree while working for Rotary.

Thanks newswriters for keeping us informed: Amanda, Betsy, Cindy, Eleanor, Hans, Jane, Jeff R., Nancy -Lorraine
