

Perry Rotary Club News from Thursday, Aug. 2, 2007

Howdy to guests Bob Delly of Faun Lake and Florida; Scott Gardner, aide to guestspeaker NYS Assemblyman Dan Burling, who updated us on Albany Antics; Charlotte Barnard; Heath Hendrickson; Josh Wolcott; Kim Brown; Jim Scott, here from the Netherlands and just in time to pick corn at Butch and sis Betsy's farm; Dean DeGroff, B&B's grandson, joined us and even took the microphone to invite us to the 4H animal auction at the County Fair. Dean earned 2nd place in the Jr. Golf Tourney at SLCC, B&B were $5 proud.

The Queen asked Rev. Gary Wood where he's been lately. Rev and the Mrs have been to PA and the Eisenhower home. He learned DDE had a pet pig named Arnold that he watched the tv show Green Acres with. Why a pet pig? Mamie wasn't allergic to it! Rev admitted he thought of QD but not much as in often. That could hurt you, she warned. There were gifts: a smashed Lincoln penny and a magnet: I Am Woman, I Am Invincible, I Am Tired, it said. $5, She said & congrats from all to Gary and the Mrs on their 38th anniversary.

Welcome back, Bob Pascoe! Glad you're joining our crack newsletter writing team.

Happy Birthday for real, Moxie. Coming up: 8/19 Eric Bryant; 8/20 Randy White, John Wheeler; 8/21 Don Felix; 8/29 Eleanor Jacobs; 8/30 Larry LaCroix. QD levied a $2 early fine on all the birthdayers.

Welcome Dist. Gov. John Hall today.

Help Wanted. PP Phil Cowie is framing a park pavilion, volunteers welcomed.

In the bag, thought the LaCroixs when they handed QD a bag full of salad dressings from their Missouri trip. Good stuff, proclaimed QD fining ea $3.

For the birds! That was the story PP Dick Betts told about buying a not-for-sale bird feeder from PP Hans Kunze. He paid for it—after all, it holds 20 lbs of feed! Return it he must since it was a Xmas gift to Hans from his mom. PP Dick bragged a bit with a tale of twin granddaughters playing varsity hoops for Perry and beating city teams this summer. Fine-ally: $3/twin+ $5/Birdman.

Rotary Camp is this week. PP Fred Reed invited us to check out the revamped pool. Thanks to Rotary's funding for steps, kids can walk into it. Aug 19. is Letchworth Pines' Bowling Bonanza camp benefit.

Newsies: Aug. 9, 2007 Nancy Meissel;
Aug. 16, 2007 Jeff Rase;
Aug. 23, 2007 Jane Monaghan;
Aug. 30, 2007 Cindy Hendrickson.