

Heralding Perry Rotary Club's January 17, 2008 Meeting

* We welcomed guests Laura Lane of Co. Chamber and Castile Bicentennial chair Denise Ballinger.

* Laura talked about Leadership Wyoming, which recently graduated 21 people in its first class including Rotarians John Wheeler and Patty Jarnot. Both spoke well of their experience. Wheels learned more about agriculture in Wyoming County than he had in his 50 years. We gave him an ovation. Patty said she can better answer questions about the County now.

* Our Get Well Card is headed to Judy Hop-along Milhollen. * Happy Birthday, Sally Bliss & PP John Matson.

* Queen Donna is MIA Jan. 24 and 31. PE Eric Bryant & PP Jeff Fitch standing in.

* PP Hans' daughters Gracie & Mary were in separate Daily News photos Jan. 9, PP Hans rounded his $7 fine up to $10.

* It's wrestling season and Ian Paddock is back making headlines. 38 seconds to pin an opponent! QD ruled: she'll hold off fining PP Roger till the end of the season.

* Clarification: QD DID NOT agree to waive fining PP Sam Gullo the rest of her term, her response to PP Roger's suggestion she give him a break.

* It's wrestling season and Ian Paddock is back making headlines. 38 seconds to pin an opponent! QD ruled: she'll hold the fining till the end of the season.

* The Queen knows all, sees all including Randy White's move from Geneseo to his new pad at Conesus Lake. Sound familiar? Randy played off the Paddock dynasty, his news being just a house. Like a little birdie, PP Hans whispered to QD. Her edict: Randy could pay a fine that matched what she had in mind...$25.

* QD to Sally B: Where were you Monday night? With a uniformed man? Sally was in Traffic Court! Seems she followed the bank's advice to forego a cashier's check to pay her $175 fine and get a postal money order instead. After weeks, Sally tossed her receipt. More time passed and court denied getting it! It wanted her license! Looks like she'll pay it again...Don O advised she stand up for herself first. PP Mike Kelly opined that fine $ goes into the District Attorney Retirement Fund. QD didn't fine Sally but did fine our club bankers and bank board member, each $5. "Donna, Donna, Prima Donna," sang an amused Mikie H.

* PROGRAM: NYS DEC officer Roger Ward. The Livonia native lives in Perry. He was a star basketball player in HS & SUNY Brockport where he earned bachelor's and master's degrees. He's been a Conservation officer here for 2 years & Long Island before that. He also is an arms and emergency driving instructor. Ward always wanted to do something environmentally, career-wise. He shared hunting stories including how the DEC has a robotic deer to catch hunters shooting illegally, like from their vehicles. Wy.Co. had 22 violations this yr.

* Happy Jan. Birthdays: 20th, PP Doug S.; 26th, Judy M.; 30th, PP Wes K.
