

Henscratchins' ... Perry Rotary Club's February 21, 2008 Meeting

♥ Visiting guests included Bob Bennett, PP of the Leroy club, Mike Leone, our District Governor Elect, and Guillermo Ramos, our Exchange Student from Spain.

♥ No fine for Amanda Parker though brother Scott was featured in Jan. D&C.

♥ John "Wheels" Wheeler, who, once again, forgot the bell and the collection pan, had to pay a $2 fine. QD, perhaps it's the pressure of his new VP-ship at The Bank of Castile?

♥ Josh Wolcott reminded us about the information meeting on Saturday for The Relay for Life, a biannual event benefitting the cause against cancer. QD asked for two teams to compete.

♥ PP John McClurg brought QD a one-of-a-kind autographed picture of Sandra Nelson, Miss January. He also reported back to us regarding Courtney's swimming accomplishments and record settings at PCS. 2 standing O's, &, well, a $10 fine.

♥ Happy Birthdays to PP Roger Paddock and Robbie Briggs.

♥ QD has noticed Sally Bliss's talent never end. Sally not only sings, and plays the piano, she's also an artist! Sally has two works of art on display in Rochester, for which she confessed to being $10 proud. Way to go "Lumber Person of the Year"!

♥ Oh Boy! QD has so many clippings of PP Rogers's family; she wasn't sure where to start. Honoree after Honoree. Then, in the National Magazine of Amateur Wrestling News, Ian Paddock is ranked 4th in the United States. WOW! At first PP Roger was rendered speechless. He then endeared us with Ian's attributes and characteristics. Humbleness or not, Gramps had to kick in $25.

♥ PP Marshall Deeney was the program de jour. Although many members tried to leave, QD insisted they sit back down. 36 years of perfect attendance and we finally receive his classification speech? HMMM. He delighted us with old photos, reminisced about the days of old, all the while filling us in with history, and prompting chuckles from stories well told.

♥ Oops. Robbie Briggs made a trip to the Carolinas, looking for both property and gifts. He went straight to a surf shop for QD, bringing her back a wild "Boom Boom" surf towel. Also inside the bag, a wood necklace. The gifts, no comparison to PP John's, brought a $4 fine for Robbie.
