

Nancy's Notes
June 6, 2008

Today's guests included Interact leader, Judy McClurg, with students, Olivia Macaluso, Samantha Myers and Justine Fitch. Other guests were Mandie Harvey, Guillermo Ramos, John Harris & it was good to see Joe Gozelski & Dueppy with us. Ralph was even early today.

Announcements

- Kudos to Craig Bramer, Pres.-Castile Merchants Assn. for its Spring Fling there.
- Mike Hughes announced that 100 people signed up for Social Night on June 25th.
- Ann Burlingham announced the Yates House/Car Cannonball Run Tour 6/7.
- PPHans announced that our speaker for next week will be Ernie Crawford, the new owner of Silver Lake Country Club.

Fines

- For a family trip/tour of Washington, Sally Bliss brought back QD a deck of cards with Hillary/Obama—but was still fined $4 and paid $5.
- Enough with the gas prices! PPF Reed found out how expensive his truck was as he traveled to/fro Rochester for the golf tourney. He was fined because he is sporting a new blue '08 Taurus—comes with a sun roof, 4 wheels, trunk, and motor. J. Kelly coughed up $3 and PPF $5.
- M. Hughes was $10 proud of son, Connor for earning 26 out of 28 pts. at All County/All State try outs.
- PPHans seems to be in the paper all the time, even the front page. He even had to pay some dollars for E. Jacobs's beautiful front yard.

Moxie was given a bag of goodies to auction off. They included a bag of things donated by Wegman's for the recent Relay. Lorraine won the bid for $27. Also, the Directors decided all monies made from the hot dog stand be given to the Relay.

Speaker -Today's speaker was Zoltan Pallagi. He is a highly skilled Orthotist and Prosthetist. Through his field, he remarked that he liked to change people's lives for the better. He helps people with diabetes, MS, MD and other debilitating diseases to be able to walk and function better. He makes house calls and he services some nursing homes, free of charge. He offered to come to our camp to help repair any braces/or other things that might need adjusting (free of charge). Zoltan works with state of the art technology to help people have a quality life.
