Funding Request Procedure & Policies

The Perry Rotary Club is interested in providing support for numerous worthy projects. To provide the most appropriate use of those funds, it is necessary for applicants to complete the attached form and qualify for funding through the review process.

The review process begins with the request form being submitted to the Community Projects Committee. If the funding request goes directly to the Board of Directors, they will in turn, send the request to the appropriate committee to review. Decisions will be made based on the information you provide. While a member of the committee may call you for additional information, it is in your best interest to provide complete information at the time of application.

After committee review, the funding request will be sent to the BOD with their recommendation. The BOD may ask for further information from the organization seeking funding and/or ask a representative from the organization to meet with the Board. If approved by the Board it then passes to the Perry Rotary Club Foundation Board for review and approval.

As with all funding organizations, our resources are limited. Thus, there are some guidelines that should be kept in mind when considering whether to apply to the Perry Rotary Club for consideration.

There are certain exclusions that are exercised. The exclusions include but are not restricted to the following:

Generally , we will not give to :

- Political Fundraising

- Ongoing operating expenses
- Salaries, benefits or administrative costs of start-up programming
